

Klick! Englisch

The Klick! English series has been especially developed for less able learners and learners with special needs at the secondary level (age group 10-14). The material focuses on the development of listening and speaking skills and aims to make communication in English a reality for pupils with learning difficulties. Realistic levels of vocabulary and structures together with illustrations and photos to ease understanding of the written language empower the pupils to communicate in English. Short relevant dialogues which enable personal expression are a central component of each lesson. Raps and cartoons offer essential repetition of the spoken material. Extensive listening material provides access to a reliable language model at all times. Exercises based on three different levels of competence make differentiation in the language class easy to manage.

For example:

Klick! English student's book 1
56 pages, softback
310 869	12.95 €
Klick! English workbook 1
56 pages, softback, with Audio-CD
310 913	9.50 €
Klick! English teacher's book 1
310 289	16.50 €
Klick! English Song-/Text-CD 1
311 897	23.75 €
Klick! English teacher's CD-R 1
311 903	30.95 €
Klick! English student's book 2
56 pages, softback
311 941	12.95 €

Volumes 3 to 6 are also available.

(Cornelsen)

New Highlight

By R. Cox, F. Donoghue (Editors)

School students and the school background are constantly changing. For this reason we have developed the tried and trusted 'Highlight' concept even further and are breaking new ground with this range of materials designed for groups of children between 10 and 16 with learning difficulties.

Authentic characters motivate students. Sarah, Emma, Tom and Jamie are the heroes of New Highlight, and students can identify immediately with their various experiences. New Highlight places special emphasis on communication skills: listening comprehension, mixed listening and visual comprehension, speaking, reading, writing and use of language.

New Highlight enables students to deal with texts and develop their own learning strategies at an early stage. Tips on learning vocabulary are presented in an appendix and are integrated throughout the units. Students are able to learn language structures inductively: with the guidance of New Highlight they discover the rules for new structures themselves. Class projects, games and handicrafts enable children to put new language into practice in a creative and stimulating way. New Highlight leads to the level B1 of the Common European Framework.

For example:

New Highlight 1 Student's Book
164 pages softback, numerous illustrations
344 061	18.95 €

(Cornelsen)

All rights available except: Austria

English G 21

The latest generation of Germany's leading English textbook series – English G – is called English G 21 and is a state-of-the-art course leading to the B1 level of the Common European Framework of Reference. English G 21 is developed for students in the 11 to 16 age range and can be used in all types of Secondary Schools.

The first two volumes of English G 21 are set in Bristol. Featuring five children, their families, friends and pets, it offers a rich picture of life in 21st century Britain. The books are full of authentic photographs commissioned by Cornelsen and taken on location in Bristol.

English G 21 comes with a wide range of additional printed and electronic material:

- teachers' version of the student book
- a colour workbook for students, complete with audio CD and CD-ROM containing numerous interactive exercises,
- Wordmaster, a vocabulary practice book with games, puzzles and crosswords,
- a reader with another detective story featuring the main characters of English G 21,
- a DVD tailored to the student book themes,
- The Radio Bristol Roadshow, a series of ten-minute radio programmes set in Bristol with topical interviews and music
- Software for teachers and/or students and more.

For example:

English G 21 student's Book 1
204 pages, four-colour softback, numerous illustrations
313 040	19.40 €

(Cornelsen)

All rights available except: Russia

A1 | A2 | B1 | B2 | C1 | C2