

The seagulls and the box

There is ... / There are ... with prepositions

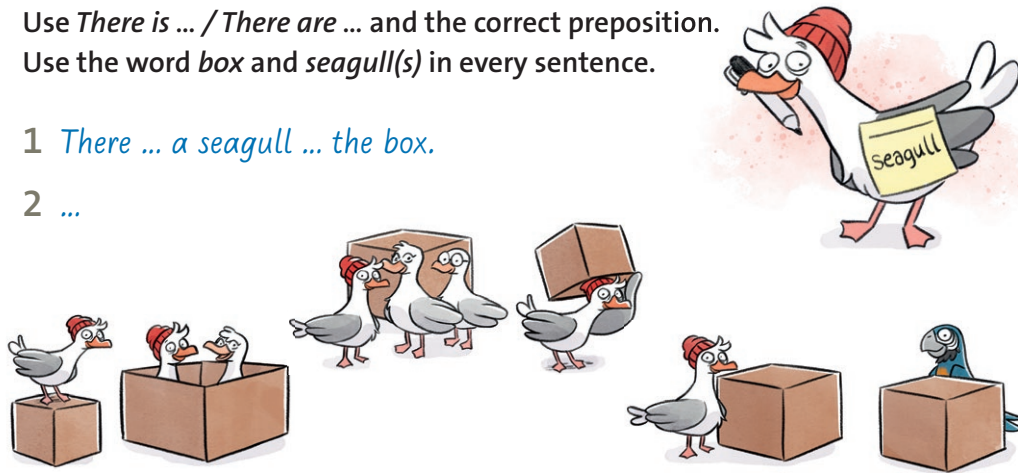

Write six sentences about the pictures.

Use There is ... / There are ... and the correct preposition.

Use the word box and seagull(s) in every sentence.

1 There ... a seagull ... the box.

2 ...

Scout's kitchen cupboard

Quantifiers: not many and not much

Talk about what you see in Scout's cupboard.

Use not many and not much.

There isn't much
I don't see much

bread - cheese - flour
orange juice - sugar

There aren't many
I don't see many

apples - eggs - fish sweets

in Scout's cupboard.

Bingo Game

Players

Make a bingo card with nine squares. Think of nine numbers between 1 and 50. Write them on the card.

Write them on the card.

Bingomaster

Say numbers between 1 and 50.

42, 7, 19, 35, ...

Players

When you hear a number on your card, put a cross on it. The first player with nine crosses shouts "BINGO!"

Scout isn't a parrot

be: negative

Correct the sentences. Use short forms.

Then give the right information.

1 Scout is a parrot.

No, she isn't a parrot. She's a seagull.

2 Alice and Lily are at King's School.

No, they ... They...

3 Varndean is a school in Germany. – No, ...

4 Lily is in class 8G at Varndean. – No, ...

5 Alice and Lily are sisters. – No, ...

6 Jake is downstairs. – No, ...

Hi, I'm a parrot.

No, you aren't a parrot.
You're a seagull.